Whereas, the Midway R-I School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty on May 28, 2008, with the retirement of Jessie Carter who has devoted several years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an educator; and

Whereas, Jessie Carter has taught English and art for twenty-four years at Midway R-I, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Jessie Carter served as an English and art teacher in the Wheaton R-III School District for four years prior to assuming her responsibilities at Midway R-I, where she has also served as a sponsor for the yearbook, school newspaper, and school play, and administrated a grant for kids K-12 to interact in writing and producing a literary magazine; and

Whereas, Jessie Carter has watched her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she has imparted to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, so many young Missourians have left the classrooms of Midway R-I fully prepared to face the challenges ahead as a result of the outstanding professional endeavors of Jessie Carter; and
